30 Day Used Parts Warranty*

Almost all of our second hand and used vehicle parts come with a 30 day warranty*, unfortunately however electrical parts are NOT covered by this same warranty.

*Terms and conditions apply. The warranty excludes electrical parts, contact us to find out more.

Our Refund Policy

We have a strict refund policy that states the following:

“We will not give a refund on any item sold if the reason for it being returned is that you changed your mind or have found out that you no longer need the item in question.”

We WILL however exchange a part that does not work for a similar or identical part that can perform the same task that the original item was purchased for. If such a part is unavailable then, and only then, will we give a full cash refund.
