NATURAL STONE & QUARTZ SURFACES

Natural Stone and Quartz Surfaces have been the trend for many years and continue to be a popular choice for kitchen tops, vanity tops, laundry tops and many more surfaces, in residential and commercial property throughout Adelaide. If a natural look is what you are seeking, then granite is a great traditional choice. We have a selection of colours to choose from and you are guaranteed a long lasting natural product that offers a look that is unique and ageless with its natural characteristics that vary from colour to colour.

Marble and Limestone are classic natural materials that are exquisite in their own right. Both offer you a soft elegant look and are used widely in a range of surfaces. They are not as hard wearing as granite and need a lot more attention and care, but with the right design and appropriate application, can compliment your home in a way that speaks out very loud.

The beauty of natural stone can make the ultimate statement in your home, depending on what design you would like to achieve to give you a classic look or a modern feel.

Quartz is a reconstituted product which is manmade and is used for interior surfaces. When it comes to Quartz Surfaces, there are many well known trusted brands to choose from, such as Caesarstone, Quantum Quartz, Essa Stone, Silestone and Smartstone that offer a wide range of colours to suit any design to compliment your home and lifestyle.

SOLID SURFACE

Australia's best kept secret, a product that with the end result, gives a kitchen top a seamless look. It can be repaired and polished at any time during its life cycle and has been and continues to be a popular choice for bench tops. Including brands such as Corian, Staron, X-flo, Hi Macs and Freestyle, bringing a new dimension to kitchen design.

Solid Surface has an advantage of creating shapes such as curves and moulded basins to transport your top to another level. Design can speak out loud with the creative manufacturing to such a product.
