I'm Min Poole

Sales Consultant

Sales consultant, Min Poole joins Barry Plant Mildura from an impressive employment background in sales, finance and recruitment.

Excelling in her previous positions, in 2007 Min was named the Highest Recruiter Nationally and No. 2 in the Highest Personal Sales category whilst working for Jigsaw Educational Toys Pty. Ltd. Her hard work and dedication continued to bring further accolades in 2011 when she won the National New Business Award with The Body Shop At Home organisation.

A high achiever in all areas of life, Min is committed to furthering her skills and qualifications through ongoing study and professional development. Along with the successful completion of her Agents Representative course in real estate, she holds a Certificate III in Education and an Advanced Certificate in Accounting. Min has also been an affiliate of the Australasian Institute of Banking and Finance.

Min has always held a keen interest in the property market. This combined with her background in sales made moving into the real estate industry a natural progression. Having bought her first home in the Melbourne suburb of Rowville at age 19, Min has gone on to buy and sell a number of residences over the years and has also experienced being both a landlord and a tenant.

A local resident of Mildura for over two decades, Min looks forward to imparting her knowledge and experience of the real estate industry with clients looking to settle in the area.
