I'm Damian Portaro

Sales Consultant

A high achiever by nature, Damien's hard work paid off when he was announced as the Top Performing individual for the total number of loans settled at his previous place of employment. He is now applying the same principles that saw him achieve this success to his real estate career, and hopes to one day enjoy similar accolades with the Barry Plant Group.

There is no doubting that Damian Portaro possesses a passion for residential real estate. Successfully purchasing his first home at age 21, Damian also worked as a Home Loans Manager prior to commencing in real estate sales in 2011.

Damian considered the move into real estate from finance as a natural progression, and believes that his experience with home loans has held him in good stead in his current role.

"My background in finance provides a significant point of difference, as I am able to qualify buyers quickly and share valuable insight regarding finance options," he says.

Damian also possesses a natural ability to match buyers with properties. It is these attributes that will inevitably see him become a 'real estate agent of choice' in years to come.

Damian attributes the most enjoyable aspect of his role as being able to assist people in achieving their home ownership and investment goals.

He has exceptional negotiation skills and works tirelessly to achieve the best result for his clients.

When not selling residential real estate, Damian is a keen musician who loves to perform. Music has played an important role throughout his life, and having the opportunity to perform in front of a crowd has been instrumental in Damian being able to approach different situations with confidence.
