STONE HEATERS

These professional stone heaters have a stylish stainless steel exterior with a non-stick, lift out inner tub for easy cleaning. The units have an adjustable digital thermostat allowing the therapist to maintain the perfect temperature during treatment and can safely be left on all day. It heats the water to 70° C, bringing the stones within the ideal temperature range of 47-50°C.

The 6L size will comfortably hold up to 50pcs of layered stones. The 18L size improves efficiency when working with larger sized stone sets because it makes finding the right stone that much quicker and easier.
