

Company Overview.

Jason Smith Property Group has positioned itself in the Murrumba Downs Castle Hill Shops close to all the major growth that is happening in the suburb. It came about when principal and licensee Jason Smith sold his CBD office and realised the opportunity for future growth and the need for a professional service to the local market.

Jason Smith Property Group will provide clients with a better way to handle their properties, founded on the principals of:

- Exceptional service
- Leveraged use of the internet for maximum results
- Strategic property marketing
- Team work
- Streamlined systems to reduce costs for clients
- Large Ray White data bases to promote properties for sale

Jason Smith Property Group specialises in the sale and lease of residential properties in the Northern Suburbs of Brisbane.

Our strategic shopping centre location will help us provide prompt service to both buyers and sellers alike.

Our Mission:

"To provide the highest level of service and achieve the best possible result for our clients"

Top Sales People:

We believe that selling real estate is a team game rather than a solo effort. With our top team of motivated, experienced, and enthusiastic salespeople all working together to sell your property; you enjoy the power of exponential effort and faster results.

Each of Jason's team is exceptionally skilled real estate negotiators, who have honed their negotiation skills to ensure you get the best possible sales terms and price. We handpick our sales agents based on teamwork, integrity, ethics and expertise. Real estate is their passion- which means selling your property is their focus and their obsession.
