

Don't:

- 1 Leave any articles you don't want packed in the house.
- 2 Hover around the removalist and offer suggestions.
- 3 Ever offer alcohol as a refreshment.
- 4 Leave dirty dishes or dirty clothing unattended.
- 5 Leave food in the fridge.
- 6 Empty the BBQ bottle by simply letting the gas out into the atmosphere.
- 7 Pack ammunition, aerosol cans and other explosive items.
- 8 Talk unnecessarily with the workmen other than to ask questions.
- 9 Criticize the workmen in how they do their work.
- 10 Insist on the workmen packing your things the way you want it done.
- 11 Let any of your goods be packed without the correct paperwork being received and signed for.

Australian
Furniture
Removers
Association

Get in contact!

Call
1800 671 806

or email
admin@afra.com.au

Australian
Furniture
Removers
Association

Do's and Don'ts on a Removal

What to do and what not to do on a removal

Do:

- 1 Call AFRA for information before your removal.
- 2 Check on the track record of the removalist you are employing.
- 3 Use an AFRA removalist.
- 4 Take insurance.
- 5 Ask questions about items that concern you.
- 6 Keep children and pets away from the activity.
- 7 Make sure the path to the removal vehicle is clear.
- 8 Provide water for the removalists to drink.
- 9 Pack items you will need upon arrival in a box and place in your car.
- 10 Keep jewellery, passports and other valuable documents in your handbag or a special box and place in your car.
- 11 Check the manufacturers instructions for moving appliances.
- 12 Empty all garden machinery, bikes or other petrol powered items safely.
- 13 Take you BBQ gas cylinder to a Gas Cylinder Testing Station certified by Standards Australia, for purging.
- 14 If traveling interstate, wash all garden implements of all soil etc.
- 15 Empty the vacuum cleaner and replace the bag with a clean one.
- 16 Keep cleaning equipment apart so you can clean when the removalist has gone.
- 17 Stay out of the removalists way.
- 18 Walk around the house and check every cupboard before leaving the house for the last time.

TO FIND OUT MORE go to www.afra.com.au

