

Transcorp – Valet Packing Service

Professional packing help so you are packed and ready for your move with Transcorp Removals & Storage.

Choose the level of service you need:

- Assist Pack: Where our pre- packer for a set period of time
(Focusing on your priority areas such as your kitchen or a 'breakables only' packing service)
- Full Pack: Where all of your belongings are packed for you.

Note: You can expect 2 by pre-packers average 8-10 boxes per hour of packing.

How we help – Making your Move Easy:

- Our pre- packers will expertly pack your precious belongings into moving cartons ready to transport, while our expert removal team carefully dismantles, wraps and packs major items such as furniture and white goods.
- We will ensure everything is packed securely and well labeled so your possessions travel safely and are easily located when you get to your new home.
- We will also ensure you have everything you need for your last night in your old house and first night in the new one.

Benefits to you – We help you Relax:

Save time, reduce the stress and effort of your move

Our pre-packers (men and /or ladies) are friendly and mature with plenty of moving experience. They will work quickly and efficiently to get everything packed and ready to move before our removal crews arrive. A professional packing service can save you weeks of preparation time and minimize the disruption of any size move. There is NO need to worry if you will be ready on time – Call us and then leave it to the professional for over 20 Years!

Focus on the important things

With the packing and organizing being done for you, you can focus on other priorities like family and essential services for your new home when moving.

An organized move is a quicker, better move

If you are packed and ready when our removal team arrives to uplift your belongings, the move will run more efficiently and in turn save you money and give you peace of mind.

Our Pre-Packers - Help for as long as you need

Typically our Pre- Packing Service is charged at an affordable hourly rate, with a minimum of two pre-packers for four hours (approximately 30-40 boxes can be packed in this time), extendable at any time. Choose as much packing help for your move as required. If we are only packing a hand full of boxes then in may be possible to be performed by our removal teams as an hourly rate on the actual move day itself.

Save time and reduce the stress of your move.
