

GE Law Services

Goddard Elliott Solicitors, Glen Waverley, Victoria, Australia

Property and Commercial Divisions

GE Law Services has expertise in all areas of property law. We assist individuals and families with selling and buying homes. We also advise landlords, tenants, real estate agents, developers, private and corporate entities in relation to complex commercial and industrial property matters and advice on self-managed super funds and trusts.

With over 30 years of experience in property and commercial transactions, our team provides comprehensive and constructive advice on property, commercial and litigation matters. Our staff work closely with our clients to achieve the desired outcomes and provide comprehensive and commercial advice to clients in a timely manner.

Our team (consisting of experienced practitioners, clerks and assistants) has an intimate knowledge of the local area and servicing the local community. We are in touch with the needs and concerns of our clients, and provide excellent service and positive outcomes where possible.

For more information please contact Pippa Sampson.