

Forklift Course Outline

Aims and outcomes

This course aims to give candidates the necessary skills and knowledge to plan, prepare and operate a forklift safely and efficiently in accordance with the National Standard for Licensing Persons Performing High Risk Work. On completion of this course candidates will be able to conduct routine checks; plan work; check controls, operate, shift various load types and shut down a forklift truck.

Pre requisite

Licence applicants must be 18 years of age and be physically capable of performing forklift activities. A basic level of English and a basic understanding of mathematics will also be required.

Course Content

The Forklift course is mapped to the nationally recognised unit of competency:

TLILIC2001A Licence to Operate a Forklift Truck

- Legislation, Australian Standards, National Standard for Licensing Persons Performing High Risk Work, guidance notes and company forklift procedures.
- Company risk management procedures and forklift risk control
- Forklift types and capacity requirements, stability attachments, workplace hazards and controls relevant to forklift operation.
- Forklift components, pre-start/pre-operation checks, data plate identification/interpretation, operating procedures, shift loads.
- Shift various loads, perform stacking at different heights and load/unload truck, shut down/post operational checks carried out, parking up.

Certification

Successful candidates will be awarded the Nationally Recognised unit of competency TLILIC2001A Licence to Operate a Forklift Truck, recognised within the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF). A Licence to Perform High Risk Work, class LF will also be issued upon application to Workplace Standards Tasmania

Duration

16 hours over 2 days

Maximum Participants

8 persons

Cost

$495