Looking for a Melbourne arborist? Introducing Redback Tree Services

If you organise a business to remove a tree, trim, prune or provide other arborist services you'd expect them to know what they're doing. And in the case of Redback Tree Services, you'd be right. Our people are professionally trained arborists and qualified in all aspects of tree care.

But providing professional tree care is only part of the way in which we ensure complete satisfaction for our customers.

Safety and environment

The safety of our people, you, your family and the wider community is our first priority. We place a high priority on the environment, too. You can relax when your trees, shrubs and property are in the hands of Redback Tree Services.

Passion and advice

While caring for trees, shrubs and other plant life is our job, it's also our passion. That's why we're more than happy to provide free arborist advice to you in all aspects of caring for your trees, shrubs and other plants.

Free quotes

Add to this a free, no-obligation and competitive quote service and it's easy to see why people use Redback Tree Services again and again.
