CALL NOW: 0418800018

Founded in 1990 by Andrew Newcombe NEWK'S PLUMBING has now grown into one of Gympie's most prominent plumbing companies. We currently have 6 tradesmen and 3 apprentices working for us. For you this means we can service our clients at any time of the day or night 365 days of the year. Keep our number handy as you never know when you'll need immediate emergency plumbing for your house, business or farm.

We always operate with safety and the environment as our highest priority. All members of our team have been trained and taught this as priority along with superior workmanship and job know-how. Customer satisfaction is also guaranteed.
